Sharing a Patient's Story

The Why Behind the Work

I was a recipient of dental services during the community dental day last spring. I wanted to reach out and send a heartfelt thank you to the providers and the organization for allowing me to receive treatment... At the time I reached out, I was newly out of a domestic violence crisis, receiving safety and relocation services, in the middle of grad school and attempting to rebuild while pursuing civil and criminal cases against my abuser. I was in so much pain from TMJ that I had cracked teeth from clenching due to the high stress environment I had been navigating for ~2 years. I could not put thousands into dental services while also pursuing my legal cases and rebuilding financially.

I am in a much safer position, steady and most importantly, pain free while continuing my studies in grad school this year. As an advocate in special education, I value connection and wanted to acknowledge how grateful I am to the providers that I had the pleasure of meeting and the services this organization were able to provide to me in a time of need.
